FIGHT AND WRITE
"Late this afternoon our battalion had a surprise alert. We had to pack everything we owned including our bed clothes and clean out. We took everything with us: Trunks, guns, kitchen utensils, typewriters, files, desks, chairs, jeeps and everything needed to set up shop anywhere. Even extra drums of gas. All this in about forty five minutes as everything is portable and fairly easy to move."

OFFICERS FOR COUNTY
If all the vegetables shipped out of the state last season were loaded in freight cars and placed in a line, they would reach 850 miles.

Following the general theme, speakers from the various counties stressed the importance of more and better production; conservation of all surplus products and elimination of all waste. The farm labor program and the part women play in it was discussed by Mrs. Bonnie J. Carter, also a member of the state staff. She modeled the new "Women's Land Army" uniform which has been adopted for women who pledge the required amount of time in farm work.

Miss Olga Kent, newly appointed agent of Palm Beach County, reviewed the current food situation and Mrs. Bonnie Gay, Brevard agent, discussed home equipment and its care. Miss Esther Grady, Duval agent, gave the latest facts on exiles and clothing, while her assistant, Mrs. Margaret Delaney, outlined the young people's program. Miss Ethel Holloway led in a round table discussion of these topics.

Outstanding among the speakers was Mrs. Sidney Smith, head of the British War Relief work in Miami, who told how the women of her country are taking part in the industrial world in order to release men for active service at the fighting front, and how they manage at the same time to feed and clothe their families and keep up the morale on the home front. She said 75 per cent of the British people are in war work. They are fed by mobile kitchens and are charged a very nominal price for substantial, well balanced meals. This, she says, is responsible for the high standard of health among the workers. She pointed out that there are 498 people to each square mile in England, while in this country there are only 44.

A social feature of the meeting was a buffet supper served in the home of Mrs. E. P. Frip in Coral Gables.

FLORIDA MOTOR LINES

INDISPENSABLE

Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow

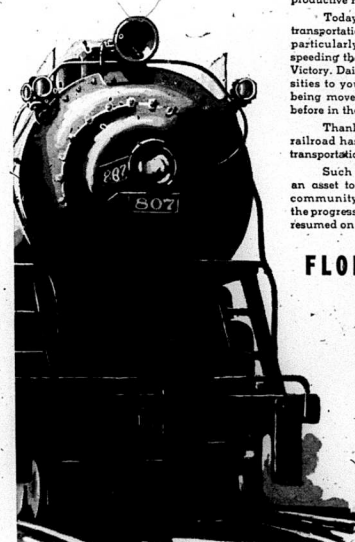

In years gone by the Florida East Coast Railway pioneered, founding new cities and opening up a vast new territory. It helped the East Coast of Florida grow from a sparsely inhabited frontier into a prosperous, productive region.

Today, with the nation at war and other forms of transportation curtailed, this railroad is performing a particularly vital role. Day and night its trains are speeding the men, materials and supplies essential to Victory. Daily they are delivering food and other necessities to your community. Florida products, too, are being moved to markets in greater volume than ever before in the history of the East Coast.

Thanks to its double track capacity, this Florida railroad has been able to meet the greatly increased transportation requirements with very little difficulty.

Such adequate railroad facilities are obviously an asset today. They will also be essential to your community in the post-war world of tomorrow when the progress, in which this railway pioneered, can be resumed on an even greater scale.

IDLENESS

Sales clerks, peddlers, high-class or otherwise, cosmeticians, fortunetellers, bootblacks, dancing teachers, soda dispensers, sign painters, private chauffeurs or taxidermists are non-defer-able.

Juke boxes and slot machines do not in any form furnish a reason for deferment; race track and gambling nor pool halls furnish any inducement to continue if you wish to be deferred.

The general idea is to eliminate all unnecessary activities and get on with the war work.

If you are a neologist, oceanographer, parasitologist or seismologist you may be deferred. If you're not one already you haven't much time to study up for it.

If you're a still operator, Chemical, all round then you stand out high on the forced list. Operating stills that have been corn spirits doesn't qualify you.

If you've been wondering why there doesn't seem to be as much JAX Beer as usual, here are the reasons:

1. Government priorities require us to set 15% of our production aside for the Armed Services... that's approximately one out of every seven bottles we produce.
2. Raw materials are limited in quantity (not in quality) which means that we can make only so much JAX and no more.
3. The demand for JAX is the greatest in our history because thousands of newcomers have discovered the excellence of JAX, the Drink of Friendship, and are demanding it.

Thus it happens that sometime your dealer may tell you he's out of JAX. When this occurs, please be patient. He will probably have JAX tomorrow if he doesn't have it today because we're making every effort to see that everyone has a fair share of golden, mellow JAX.

So keep on asking for JAX whenever your thirst craves satisfying refreshment... and remember, you can't buy better beer than JAX at any price.

TO OUR DEALERS

Thanks for the cooperative, patient spirit you have been showing. It's the kind of spirit our nation needs in times like these. We never forget your troubles for a minute and we're doing our best to keep you supplied with JAX, The Drink of Friendship.
